RE: Response to May 2, 2007 Order
Civil Action No. 06-128-KMS

May 14, 2007

Dear Judge Mary Pat Thyng,

Plaintiff is still being treated for anxiety and severe depression by doctors at OSAMH Community Mental Health Center and I am still currently on medications that are sedating among other things (Prozac and Remeron). Also see attached documents. I have only a 9th grade education and my reading and writing is minimal. I am unemployed but am trying to find employment.

even with injury to try to support myself and to pay child support payments. Plaintiff is currently at a great disadvantage now without the help of law trained paralegals at the prison. And as also stated in our last tele conference on May 1, 2007 I also do not know how to research nor interpret the law and therefore, I respectfully request and pray that your honor will grant Plaintiff's pending motion for appointment of Counsel.

Sincerely,
Charles R. Jones
